About Those Curb Mailboxes; P.O. Notes

I don't keep up with events as I should. However, I took due note of the fact that Hope Post Office announced several months ago it was removing the curb mail depository from its offset position on East Second St. for overhaul.

There being no announcement of its return to service I was about to write a piece asking why it took so long to overhaul one mail depository. I had noted three new boxes on the north side of the driveway that circles the Post Office but thought they had been stashed there only for painting. Meanwhile I had been continuing to walk up to the old post office (now the public schools administration building) and deposit The Star's outgoing mail in the curb box at that site.

Then in the course of a coffee conversation I learned that the three boxes on the north side of the Post Office were actually in service. So on Sunday night when wrapping up remittances for the monthly bills—the discount checks had gone out in advance—I used the new boxes.

But I made a mistake in the dark, it being just beyond midnight. I struck a lighter to read the instructions over each box—there are three—but then I erred and put the local mail in the out-of-town box, and there was nothing left to do but put everything in that box.

Should you happen upon these deposit boxes in the dark, here is the order in which you come to them:

You leave E. Second St. and circle the Post Office on the federal driveway to the north side of the building (across the street from the Fire Station) and find the three boxes conveniently at your left. The first one is for air mail, the second for out-of-town mail, and the third for in-town mail (this one is nearest the Fire Station).

I could have suggested that with three boxes to choose from you should have been helped with an overhead light. But I won't say that.

Actually the new setup is a great convenience—a big improvement over the single box that used to be on E. Second St. And I congratulate the postal folks on the improvement.

Regarding the switch of the terminal and sorting facilities from Hope Post Office to Oaklawn Post Office on the west side of Texarkana I still have my fingers crossed. Some of the trouble has been corrected. And yet—

Robert Sipes has reported that no papers were delivered to Columbus Saturday morning, May 13.

H. Rosenbaum and Ruel Mullins reported there was no mail delivery on Fulton Route One Saturday morning.

We are asking all mail subscribers to continue to report to The Star whenever a complete non-delivery of a route or rural post office occurs. Each report should include three subscribers' names as evidence there was a total miss-out.

We will give the postal people a little more time on this—and then if it is evident delivery can't be improved we will go into federal court and ask that the terminal and sorting section be restored to Hope.

Gold Coins Found

CRAB ORCHARD, Ky. (AP) — Caleb Gross was digging for arrowheads around an old tobacco patch near his home when he struck gold.

It was a $10 gold coin. Something of a miniature gold rush developed after the word got around and several hundred people began digging at the farm during the next two days.

Gross, 27, said they found a total of about 50 coins dating from 1850 to 1864, all within 20 feet of the unplowed tobacco patch.

"They couldn't have been in much newer condition if they'd come from the mint," Gross said.

Wallace Is Shot

By THOMAS STUCKEY
Associated Press Writer

LAUREL, Md. (AP) — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace was shot Monday during a campaign appearance at a shopping center here. Two other persons—a woman campaign worker and an Alabama state trooper—were reported wounded.

The 52-year-old governor's condition was not immediately known.

Wallace and the woman collapsed on the ground near the speaker's platform after the shots were fired and were taken away in two ambulances. Wallace was taken to Leland Memorial Hospital.

George Mangum, a Wallace campaign worker, told the crowd of approximately 1,000 persons at the shopping center rally, "I'm told the police have a man in custody."

Police also said the man apprehended at the scene was being taken to county police precinct headquarters at Hyattsville.

The Secret Service, which is responsible for protecting all presidential candidates declined to give any further details.

Billy Grammer, a country music entertainer on the platform with Wallace when the gunfire erupted said the candidate was hit twice, once in the middle of the stomach and once in the left arm.

Gov. George Wallace

"He looked like he was hurt pretty bad," Grammer said. An Alabama state trooper on the platform also was wounded, Grammer said. He said a total of five shots were fired.

About 1,000 persons were assembled at the center. The crowd was generally friendly to Wallace throughout the 30-minute speech.

There were no anti-Wallace signs, although a few McGovern supporters were passing out button and literature.

Wallace had gone to the suburban shopping complex midway between Baltimore and Washington, D.C., in a busy land presidential primary. The Alabama governor had planned to campaign in Maryland through Tuesday and remain at his downtown Baltimore election headquarters Tuesday night for the returns.

Amish Win Victory Over Ed. Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Amish people won unanimously today in the Supreme Court an exemption from state laws compelling them to continue their schooling beyond the eighth grade.

Ruling in a case from Wisconsin, the court said compulsory formal education after the eighth grade would gravely endanger—if not destroy—the free exercise of their religious beliefs.

The Amish, descendants of 18th century Swiss Anabaptists, believe a high school education is a deterrent to salvation in that it involves worldly learning. They and the closely related Old Order Mennonites live in 19 states. Wisconsin was one of nine in which they have been subjected to prosecution for refusing to send their children to high school.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, who delivered the opinion, said, "However strong the state's interest in universal compulsory education, it is by no means absolute to the exclusion or subordination of all other interests."

In other actions today, the court: —Rejected an appeal from a lower court ruling that requires Norfolk, Va., to provide free bus service to some 24,000 children assigned under desegregation plans to schools more than walking distance from their homes.

—Agreed to decide whether a federal law against extortion can be used against union members who use violent tactics against their employers in hopes of gaining a better union contract.

—Rejected an appeal by State's Atty. Edward V. Hanrahan and 10 police officers facing trial resulting from the 1969 raid slayings of Black Panther leaders Fred Hampton and Mark Clarke in Chicago.

—Ruled that a new subcontractor is required to recognize and bargain with a labor union certified as bargaining agent with the former employer of his workers.

Mummy May Hold Clue to Pollution

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — They're going to cut into an Egyptian mummy Tuesday to find out if cancer, hepatitis, syphilis and polluted air were common 3,000 years ago.

The autopsy will be conducted at the physical anthropology laboratory of the University of Pennsylvania Museum by seven doctors who hope the post-mortem will help prepare for possible future changes in man's disease patterns.

"We will see if man then died of the same things we did," says Dr. Martin Mandell, a 48-year-old neurologist who is a consultant in the unusual project. "I have a good idea they may have, but I don't think they lived long enough to develop some of the diseases we're now getting."

The subject of the autopsy will be one of three mummies which have been X-rayed at the museum. None is a pharaoh or a queen—just an ordinary citizen of ancient Egypt.

9 Die in Belfast Riot

BELFAST (AP) — British paratroopers pushed through a crossfire of bullets early today to establish a truce line between battling Protestants and Roman Catholics in Belfast. Nine persons were killed in the weekend of violence, including a 13-year-old girl.

It was Northern Ireland's most violent weekend in three and a half months, since British paratroopers killed 13 demonstrators on "Bloody Sunday" Jan. 30 in Londonderry. At least 327 persons now have died in nearly three years of communal warfare in Northern Ireland.

The army said quiet prevailed early today on the bat-

MoPac Crash Liability Is Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Supreme Court affirmed today a judgment against the Missouri Pacific Railroad Co. arising out of a car-train collision in Conway County, but reduced the amount of the judgment from $140,000 to $45,500.

The personal injury action grew out of a collision at Blackville in which the Rev. A. L. Perkins, 76, of Little Rock was injured and two passengers in his car, Sam McDaniel, 74, and Walker Templeton, 88, were killed.

The jury had awarded $10,000 to Perkins, $25,000 to the widow of Templeton and $5,000 each to the 10 adult Templeton children and the 11 adult children of McDaniel for mental anguish.

The Supreme Court, in an opinion written by Associate Justice Conley Byrd, upheld the awards to Perkins and to Templeton's widow, but said the judgments of $5,000 to each of the surviving adult children were excessive.

The court said any amount above $500 for the mental anguish of each of the children was excessive. It said it would affirm the judgment subject to reducing the amounts to $500 each.

field of bullet-scarred buildings between the Ballymurphy district, one of the toughest Catholic enclaves in the city, and the Protestant Springmartin housing development.

"But there is still a lot of tension in the air," one British officer said. "It won't take much to touch things off again."

The battle began Saturday afternoon when a bomb in a car blasted Kelly's Bar, on the edge of Ballymurphy.

The pub was jammed with soccer fans watching an international match on television, and 53 persons, including some children playing outside, were wounded.

Snipers hidden along the grassy edge of the Springmartin estate opened fire on the crowd which raced to the blast scene. Guerrillas of the Irish Republican Army raced to strongpoints in Ballymurphy and sent back a hail of fire into the squat apartment houses overlooking the Catholic zone.

The shooting spread along a mile-long perimeter, and troops moved up to try to restore peace. They came under fire from both sides. The Protestant fire apparently died out, and the soldiers were left shooting it out with a large force of IRA guerrillas.

Bastogne Base Retaken

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces recaptured Fire Base Bastogne 12 miles west of Hue today after 36 hours of fierce fighting and B52 saturation strikes, field reports said. The base fell to the North Vietnamese April 28. The counter-attack that retook it was the second on the northern front in three days by South Vietnamese forces who in six weeks of setbacks had retreated 30 miles below the demilitarized zone and given up the provincial Capital of Quang Tri City.

Associated Press correspondent Peter Arnett reported from the northern front that South Vietnamese infantrymen were only a stone's throw from another important fire base called Checkmate on a hill overlooking Bastogne.

In the central highlands, North Vietnamese forces made fresh probes during the night of the defenses of Kontum City, and sources said they believed them to be preliminary to an all-out assault.

On the southern front, enemy forces cut the Saigon-Phnom Penh highway 25 miles north-west of the South Vietnamese capital, and heavy fighting was reported near Trang Bang, a district town.

North Vietnamese gunners rained 2,500 artillery, rocket and mortar shells on An Loc, 60 miles north of Saigon, continuing a 6½-week old siege, and light ground fighting was reported. The North Vietnamese were reported still holding sections of the northern part of the city.

The South Vietnamese command said the drive to Fire Base Bastogne was part of a plan to enlarge defense lines around Hue.

The drive to Bastogne and Checkmate was made by 2,000 South Vietnamese infantrymen. Helicopters took some of them to the ridge lines. Others advanced on foot behind a shield of artillery and strikes by U.S. B52 bombers and fighter-bombers.

On the central front, North Vietnamese troops destroyed two culverts on Highway 19, leading from the coast to the highlands, and cut the road 15 miles east of Pleiku.

U.S. officials said American planes had knocked out the Dragon's Jaw bridge at Thanh Hoa, 80 miles south of Hanoi, wrecked several spans of the Paul Doumer road and railroad across the Red River bridge at Hanoi, and cut the northeast and northwest rail lines between the North Vietnamese capital and China.

In Cambodia, government troops abandoned one of their last positions near the southern portion of Takeo Province, the military command reported.

Kirivong, 65 miles south of Phnom Penh, is the 12th town in Takeo and Kampot provinces to fall to enemy attacks in less than two weeks.

Trenches Dug at Hue

By PETER ARNETT

HUE, Vietnam (AP) — South Vietnamese forces are digging in around the pleasure palaces and throne hall of Hue's Forbidden City in preparation for a final stand.

Every day a new date is whispered by a street-side soothsayer or a general for the start of the final battle. Almost everyone deems that battle inevitable.

A week ago a large part of Hue's 200,000 people were panicked into leaving by the spectacle of defeated battalions and thousands of refugees fleeing the crumbling northern front.

Almost all observers here believe that the North Vietnamese are not out for a headline-grabbing, lightning attack that might be followed by expulsion from the former imperial capital days later. This time they appear to want to make their success permanent and will attack only when they are truly ready.

It now appears that the objective is much more than the

117 Die in Jap Fire; Smoker Held

OSAKA, Japan (AP) — Police accused a workman today of dropping a lighted cigarette near a synthetic textiles display and touching off the fire that killed 117 persons in a seventh-floor cabaret Saturday night.

Police said Keiji Kawashima, 36, was doing electrical wiring four floors below in the department store in which the club was located when the fire broke out on the same floor.

Kawashima was accused of extreme professional negligence resulting in deaths and injuries. He escaped injury along with four others working on the third floor.

Okinawa Goes Back to Japan

By JOHN RODERICK
Associated Press Writer

TOKYO (AP) — The United States returned Okinawa to Japan today and Vice President Spiro T. Agnew said the transfer opened a new era of full partnership between the two countries that fought the last great battle of World War II on the island.

Ending 27 years of American occupation, the 73 islands and one million inhabitants of Okinawa and the Ryukyus archipelago reverted to Japanese rule at one minute after midnight to the din of sirens, whistles and horns in the area.

Ten hours later, Agnew read President Nixon's proclamation of the turnover at a subdued Tokyo ceremony attended by Emperor Hirohito, a moist-eyed Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and other Japanese leaders.

Reversion took place against a background of protest and Shreveport May 4.

Miss Pruden received the WSGA award from the Women's Student Government Association and the Certified Public Accountants Award from Society of Louisiana Certified Public Accountants for maintaining the highest scholastic record for four years as an accounting major.

Miss Pruden also is an honorary member of the Maroon Jackets organization at Centenary.

Dwight Galloway of Hope was one of fifteen senior ROTC cadets receiving their commissions as second lieutenants in ceremonies Friday in the Carl R. Heng Center at Arkansas State University, following the oath taking, the new officers received their gold bars from their mothers, wives or girlfriends in a pinning ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Cash underwent eye surgery May 8 at Wadley Hospital in Texarkana. She expects to be discharged this week for a period of recovery at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Elmer Hatch of Texarkana.

Tom Wardlaw entered Wadley Hospital in Texarkana last week held at Centenary College in nawa and the Ryukyus archipelago reverted to Japanese rule at one minute after midnight to the din of sirens, whistles and horns in the area.

Ten hours later, Agnew read President Nixon's proclamation of the turnover at a subdued Tokyo ceremony attended by Emperor Hirohito, a moist-eyed Prime Minister Eisaku Sato and other Japanese leaders.

Reversion took place against a background of protest and threatened demonstration against the continued presence of U.S. military forces in Okinawa. The Tokyo ceremony was boycotted by the opposition Socialist party and by deputies who will represent the restored prefecture, or state, of Okinawa in the Japanese parliament.

Agnew said the transfer "resolves the last major issue of the war," ends one era and begins a new one.

Agnew told the audience of 8,000 in the Budokan, Tokyo's hall of martial arts, that "we place the highest value on our relations with Japan."

Highway Death Toll Down

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
One person was killed on the state's highways—a sharp contrast to the 12 persons who died the weekend before.

The State Police identified the lone victim as Freddy L. Harper, 27, of near North Little Rock.

Officers said Harper was killed Saturday morning when he lost control of his car on U.S. 270, three miles east of Sheridan.

If A Man Answers....

If you dial for a long distance operator in Hope and a man answers, don't hang up.

You're talking to one of Hope's first two male operators—David Chance or David Baker.

Although they are working in unusual telephone jobs for men, their interest in the telephone business comes naturally. Their mothers each have about 25 years service with Southwestern Bell as operators and service assistants.

David Chance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Chance, began training as an operator on April 27. He was joined four days later by David Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Baker.

Both said they decided on their own to apply for the jobs after hearing their mothers talk about the company hiring men operators in other locations.

Chance was graduated from Hope High School recently and intends to make a career at the phone company.

"The work is fascinating and there's nothing boring about it. I'm a little slower than the other operators now but I think my speed will improve with experience," Chance said.

Asked if he wanted to stay in the traffic operating room or work elsewhere in the company, Chance said, "I'm really not sure what I'll do. I know I'd like installation or construction work but there may be a better future for a man in the operating room," he said. "One thing for sure, I know a man who had worked on the switchboard would make a good supervisor since he'd know what it's like handling calls regularly."

Chance's steady girl, Denise Lauterback, may not be as thrilled with his new job as he is. Chance said she doesn't like the idea of him working nights.

"But she doesn't seem to be upset that David and I are the only men in a room full of women. At least not yet," he said.

Baker indicated he's not so sure about making a career of being a telephone operator.

"There are a lot of things I haven't done yet, so I may not stay here forever," he said.

A senior at Hope High next year, Baker plans to work full-time during the summer months and part-time during the school year. The two young men share another common interest—racing automobiles. Both have fairly new racing cars and their night telephone work gives them time to work on their cars during the day.

Baker recently wrote a letter to The Star encouraging local people to support the building of a drag strip in Hope.

"The nearest is at Haynesville, La., and that's a long way to go for a race," Baker said.

Chance has already raced at Haynesville and brought back two trophies. Baker has yet to enter his first race.

Chief Operator, Mrs. Sarah Adams said the new operators' interest in racing cars has brought a new subject to discussions during coffee breaks.

Boswell Is Counting on 1968 Votes

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — This is the year in which the political horticulturist will learn whether a seed germinating since 1968 is to bear fruit.

The seed is the Ted Boswell campaign, which thundered up from oblivion four years ago and withered short of fruition. That effort missed by roughly 400 votes landing a spot in the Democratic gubernatorial runoff.

The consensus of Political thought then was that Boswell would be back as a force to be reckoned with in Arkansas politics.

He's back, testing the theory with his candidacy this year for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate position John L. McClellan holds.

Boswell, like Rep. David Pryor of Camden, who also seeks the job, rates the role of underdog against the 30-year incumbent senator.

But Boswell sees himself, rather than Pryor, as the man who is gaining sufficient strength to challenge McClellan's hold on the office.

Early in May, Boswell told newsmen he was "within an inch" of being in a runoff with McClellan.

Poll-Watching System Set For Elections

WASHINGTON (AP) — Saying they fear Democrats could steal the next presidential election, key Republican strategists are setting up an intricate poll-watching system to prevent it.

"It is a matter of public knowledge that there have been voting irregularities," said Murray Chotiner, the veteran Nixon campaigner who will head the project. "The people who fool with elections know who they are."

Democrats also are planning to provide poll-watchers across the nation on Nov. 7, but a party spokesman said they have no program to watch the GOP operation.

Chotiner would not specify which areas he considers suspect, but other Republican sources say the party is concentrating on areas in a dozen states, including Cook County, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., and East St. Louis, Ill., New Jersey, Indiana, Kentucky, Texas and New Mexico.

All these are places where the Democratic Party organization is strong and Republicans have traditionally complained of hanky-panky with the vote count.

Egypt Denies Red Tie

By HARRY DUNPHY
Associated Press Writer

BEIRUT (AP) — A year ago President Sadat of Egypt eliminated his opposition from the Soviet-leaning left. In a speech Sunday he struck at right-wing elements critical of the country's dependence on the Russians.

But Sadat's essential problem remains. In less than a month it will be five years since Israel occupied Egypt's Sinai Desert and other Arab lands it captured in the six-day war. For all his maneuvering, Sadat, after 20 months in power, has not been able to break the impasse, and impatience with him is increasing in Egypt.

Egyptians in the last year have seen the Soviet Union play a major role in helping India defeat Pakistan and provide the North Vietnamese with the supplies needed to launch their

McGovern Sees Upset in Michigan

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

Sen. George McGovern, buoyed by enthusiastic crowds in four Michigan cities, says "it's just conceivable we can pull an upset" in Tuesday's Democratic presidential primary.

The South Dakota senator had the Michigan stage to himself for today's campaign wind-up as his two major opponents, Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, concentrated on Maryland where a primary is also being held Tuesday.

Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York also planned to campaign in Michigan.

Humphrey will spend the day in the Baltimore area, while Wallace campaigns in Washington suburbs and Annapolis.

Wallace, in his strongest campaign bid so far in the North, is generally expected to run first in both Michigan and Maryland and perhaps win a sizable majority of Maryland's 53 delegates.

current offensive against South Vietnam. They are asking why their Russian ally cannot do the same for them against Israel.

Sadat sought to silence these critics in his speech Sunday and at the same time rebuke those who have expressed concern about the Soviet role in Egypt.

"We are friends on an equal footing," he said, adding that in any war with Israel he did not want "one Soviet soldier to fight. We are ready to fight our own battles."

He also said Egypt did not seek a confrontation between the Soviet Union and the United States in the Middle East.

Sadat told the People's Assembly, or parliament, that the Soviet leaders understood his position, made clear in four visits to Moscow in the past year, and is providing Egypt with massive economic and military support for a "battle with Israel that is inevitable."

The Arab-Israeli deadlock is increasing tension on Egyptian society—student strikes and industrial disturbances are an example—and how much longer Sadat can walk the tight rope is in doubt. But it is hard to see how Sadat or anyone else could do the job differently.

Forecast Is Fair and Mild

You might say Arkansas is going to have FM weather — not easy listening, perhaps, but easy living, if you like it mostly fair and mild.

The forecast through Tuesday and the long range forecast through Friday both call for generally fair skies with daytime temperatures in the 80s and nighttime readings getting into the 60s.

No rain is predicted through Friday.

The partly cloudy skies of Sunday had changed to generally clear by dawn today.

Overnight low temperatures included 48 at Fayetteville, 52 at Harrison, 54 at Jonesboro, 55 Maryland and perhaps win a sizable majority of Maryland's 53 delegates.

Extortion Law On Unions to Be Heard

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether a federal law against extortion can be used against union members who use violent tactics against their employers in hopes of gaining a better union contract.

The government filed the appeal directly from Baton Rouge, La. The federal court there ruled last December that the Hobbs Act could not be used against violent pressure tactics if the wages the union hoped to gain were for genuine and desired services.

The court, however, said the Hobbs Act could be used if the union members attempted to use violence to gain wages "to be paid for unneeded or unwanted services."

The case, to be heard next term, involves an indictment filed by the Justice Department—and dismissed by the district court—against four members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The indictment alleged that the four men—Travis Emmons, Jackie Bendo, Ed Barton and Milton Woodward—conspired to violate the Hobbs Act by destroying property which belonged to the Gulf States Utilities Corp., a Texas and Louisiana distributor of electrical power.

The indictment alleged that the four men, or persons acting at their direction, committed five acts of violence against Gulf States property, including the shooting and sabotage of electrical transformers and the blowing up of a transformer substation.

The four defendants then asked the district court to dismiss the charges and that court agreed.

The Justice Department, in a brief filed with the Supreme Court, said the district court decision "severely curtails the reach of the Hobbs Act by limiting its ban on extortionate conduct."

It said there was no indication in the "legislative history of the act that Congress intended to limit coverage to an employee's demand for higher wages only if it related to superfluous, as opposed to desired, work."

"Money used to pay wages in plainly proper," the department said. "Its character does not change simply because it is paid for work which is real and desired."

Certain Vitamins Can Poison

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—I am very confused about vitamins. My mother, who is 80, has very dry skin. For five months she has been taking vitamin A and vitamin D combined in one capsule, but since you wrote that these are the only two known vitamins that can do harm, I am worried about her taking them. I got these from a health food store, where I was told they were good for dry skin, and her skin is better. Would you explain what you mean by the statement that vitamin A and vitamin D might do harm?

Dear Reader—The 1971 edition of the American Medical Assn. Drug Evaluation states unequivocally that there is no evidence that taking more than 25,000 international units of vitamin A a day will be helpful. Large doses in excess of this amount taken for long periods of time may cause skin and bone changes similar to those from a lack of vitamin A. Severe toxic reactions have occurred in individuals who have taken large amounts of vitamin A. Whole fishing crews have gotten sick from eating fish liver containing large amounts of vitamin A. Polar bear liver contains too much vitamin A. It is poisonous to man and can even cause death.

Now, don't panic about how much vitamin A your mother is getting. The usual daily vitamin tablet that is marketed contains about 5,000 units, which is far below the toxic level of vitamin A. The problem develops when a devoted vitamin pop-

HELEN HELP US!
by Helen Bottel

World Of The Secret Swingers
DEAR HELEN: What do you do when you find out that good friends are secret swingers?

We've known this couple for two years. He's "management" in my husband's company. She enjoys all those ordinary things I like—knitting, tennis, taking our children to the zoo, get-togethers with our middle-class friends. But we always knew they weren't available on Saturday nights—that was the time to visit families, they said.

The other day I was baby-sitting her kids (we help each other out this way), and little Jamie pulled out a dresser drawer and dumped the contents on the floor. In putting them back, I found this magazine for "swingers," giving phone numbers, etc., and ads that leave nothing much to the imagination. Some of the ads were circled. With dates—all for Saturday nights.

Every time I see my friends now, I'm afraid we'll get propositioned. How can people who seem so normal go in for mate-swapping?—SHOCKED STRAIGHT

DEAR S.S.: You'll never know unless you ask them—and then you'd probably find out what several books and articles on "swingers" have already said: six days a week they live conventional lives, but Saturday night, they break away, in what THEY consider an acceptable means of avoiding marriage boredom.

I don't agree, nor do you, but as long as they don't try to convert their straight friends, why not pretend you never saw that magazine? It won't be easy!—H.

Dear Helen: I have epilepsy, but it's pretty well under control—so much so that I am getting married soon. I would like to have a job and I am well qualified, but in my town, no one will take a chance on me.

You see, I sing (or rather sang) in our church choir. Loved it. But I had a seizure during services. It was the first in a long time, but it shook the members so much that I was asked—in a nice way of course—not to come back. The word gets around. Must I be an "invalid" when I'm not? The only "help" I received was from a rehabilitation agency that put me to work as a packer with the mentally retarded at almost nothing an hour. I'm a college graduate, and a music major—and I can function very well in the business world, too.

Is there hope?—SHUNNED DEAR SHUNNED: Your church choir deserves a hatful of sour notes! Where's their Christian kindness?

A director of your State Rehabilitation Agency tells me that your case will be reviewed if you will make an appointment for an interview. He feels sure

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Television's annual big show, the 24th Emmy Awards, for what must be the 24th time was too long and too much.

For two and one-quarter hours on CBS Sunday night the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences honored its best. But in addition to the marathon length, there were too many awards made on camera, too many recipients talked too long and thanked too many people.

And, where there were occasional breathers for unrelated entertainment, it was routine stuff—a choral group singing patriotic songs and Frank Gorshin doing impressions. There was a funny film sequence clipped from the current assortment of doctor shows which, by contrast, was a witty standout.

The programs and stars honored seemed to be logical and popular choices.

With news and documentary awards made a week earlier and with many categories—including daytime programs—cited before the show went on the air, it did seem that the television portion could have been chopped to manageable size and length by further weeding out.

The producers had the viewers' interests in mind some of the time, however. They did not save up all the most important awards to the very end.

The death over the weekend of big Dan Blocker inevitably means important changes in "Bonanza" next September. Blocker, one of the original cast members when the series started on NBC 13 years ago, was the series' star most likely to handle its comedy shows. He was the one with special appeal to the younger viewers.

The producers have a number of options in trying to plug the huge hole left in the show by the actor's death. It seems likely, however, that a new, important character will be introduced so that the heavy acting load involved in a weekly hour-long series can be split up.

Blocker's death at age 43 comes at a time when the series is to be moved from its familiar Sunday night berth into a Tuesday night niche—and important and potentially hazardous shift for any series. "Bonanza" needs all the help it can muster to make the transition with audience intact.

'Made Work' Slammed by George Meany

Oswald: "When declarer can make his contract without giving up the lead he can relax completely. He can relax just as much if he can give up the lead with complete safety."

Jim: "Sometimes one opponent represents danger and he can afford to let the other one in. Under those circumstances it is up to him to keep away from the man with the gun."

Oswald: "West is the man with the gun today. He opens the king of diamonds and continues the suit. South wins the second diamond and sees that his future lies with the club suit. If East has the king of clubs he can tussle against it and will have 10 top tricks. What if West had the king of clubs? West will get a club and five diamonds."

Jim: "If South is a good player he decides not to bother with a club finesse. He doesn't care if East gets on lead with that card since he only needs four club tricks for his contract. Therefore he lays down his ace of clubs and gets a pleasant dividend. West does hold the king of clubs but that is the only club in his hand. He has to play it on South's ace."

Oswald: "It turned out that West held a gun but it wasn't loaded and South scores game and rubber."

Students in London Go on Strike

LONDON (AP) — Teen-age revolutionaries have raised the banner of pupil power and called a strike for Wednesday in London's schools.

Among their demands: no more staying after school, no more censorship of school magazines, no more school uniforms and free milk every day.

The Schools Action Union, which is known to have links with several grown-up leftist groups, said if the one-day strike in London is successful, a nationwide pupil walkout will be their next move.

Heard Wins Colonial Nat'l

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Golf Writer FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Jerry Heard is a casual, relaxed, quietly-confident young man, who has immediate goals now, especially after his victory Sunday in the $125,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

"I want to knock off Jack (Nicklaus)," he said, lacking even a trace of bravado. "I'll play next week (in the Danny Thomas-Memphis Open starting Thursday), but I'm not sure what I'll do after that. I want to be right for the U.S. Open. I want to get Nicklaus."

Nicklaus announced earlier this year his hope of winning the Big Four titles this year, the United States and British Opens, the Masters and PGA. He has won the Masters. The U.S. Open is scheduled June 15-18 at Pebble Beach, Calif.

Nicklaus skipped this event but will play in Memphis. Heard's $25,000 first prize increased his tour winnings this season to $106,000, second to Nicklaus' $154,000.

The NIT was his third career victory and second this season.

He blew a two-stroke lead with a double bogey on the 17th hole which dropped him into a tie with Fred Marti. But he won on the 18th by two strokes when he sank a 25-foot birdie putt following a Marti bogey from a buried lie in a bunker.

Heard, 25, finished with a three-over-par 73 and a 275 total, five-under-par on the very tough 7,142-yard Colonial Country Club course.

Marti, winless after nine tour years, saw his hopes for a victory fade at the 18th hole when he observed the impossible shot he faced from the bunker.

"Going to 17 I didn't expect to win," Marti said. "Then I got second lie. But I just hit a bad shot on the last hole. That's all you can call it, just a bad shot."

Marti finished with a 72—277, alone in second.

Dave Stockton, a one-time winner here, took third with 72-278 while Phil Rodgers, tied with Marti going into the final round, slipped to a 74-179.

They were the only four players able to break par for four days. Only two subpar scores were recorded on the final day with Art Wall shooting a 66—286 and Bob Murphy a 69—280, good enough to place him fifth.

Doctors League Begins 1972 Season

The Doctors League began their 1972 season Thursday night in the newly lighted Key Field located inside Fair Park.

The Braves won over the Cardinals by the score of 8 to 3 in the first game of the night.

The second game was Cubs beating the Dodgers 7 to 4, and the last game of the night seen the Yankees blast the Giants 20 to 2.

Doctors League play will continue next Thursday night with Dodgers vs Giants at 6 p.m. followed by Yankees vs Braves at 7:15, and at 8:30 the Cards take on the Cubs.

El Paso Still in First Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Geoff Zahn kept El Paso in first place in the Texas League West Sunday with a five-hitter over San Antonio.

Zahn struck out 12 and went all the way for the 5-0 victory that saved the Sun Dogs' one game lead over Amarillo, which swept a doubleheader from Midland 6-1 and 8-1.

In the East, Memphis opened a two-game lead over Alexandria by taking 7-4 and 5-1 victories over Arkansas. Shreveport edged Alexandria 4-3 in 11 innings.

Amarillo erupted for all of its six runs in the first game in the sixth inning. The big blows off three Midland pitchers were a bases loaded double by Augusto Martin and a two-run single by Ken Cornell. In the second game, the Giants' Tom Russell won his fourth game without a loss and lowered his earned run average to 0.42.

Mays Steals Arkansas State Jumper in Lead Spotlight

By KEN RAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Rusty Staub hit a grand slam home run, but hardly got any notice. There was another fellow in the New York Mets' lineup Sunday. "He deserves all the attention—it was his day," Staub said of Willie Mays, who was pinched against his locker by reporters after hitting a home run to help the Mets beat the San Francisco Giants 5-4.

"It was a strange feeling battling against a team that you played with for 21 years," said Mays, who was acquired last Thursday in a much-publicized deal with the Giants. "I had feelings for both sides after I hit the homer."

"I wanted to help the Mets, but at the same time, I had a feeling for the Giants. As I rounded third, I looked into the dugout and saw Giant uniforms. That's the only uniform I've worn until now. I didn't know what they were thinking."

After Staub belted the third slam of his career in the first inning, Mays stole the spotlight away by drilling a tie-breaking homer in the fifth, the 647th of his illustrious 22 seasons.

"I was nervous before the game," said Mays. "I was so nervous that I didn't want people to talk to me about the game. I never thought I'd do anything to win this one."

While circling the bases, Mays said his thoughts drifted back to his rookie year.

"My first hit as a Giant was a homer," said Mays. "I remembered that we won the pennant that year, in 1951. My first hit as a Met was a homer. I felt that maybe we'd win the pennant this year. That's what I was thinking."

Mays got a standing ovation from the crowd of 35,505 when he first stepped to the plate against San Francisco starter Sam McDowell. He walked.

"It was wonderful to hear the crowd," said the Mets' 41-year-old first baseman. "But I'm glad I walked. It could have been a different game if I didn't walk."

No doubt would have been a different game, for after Mays walked, Sudden Sam was wild as the wind and issued walks to Bud Harrelson and Tommie Agee to set the table for Staub.

Twins Off to Fast Start With 16-5 Record

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer There's a student revolt going on in the American League West where, with the full approval of Al Worthington, Minnesota's dean of pitchers, the Twins have taken over the division.

It's a peaceful demonstration, though. At least most opposing batters have acted peaceful enough to give the Twins' pitching staff a 1.86 earned run average following unbeaten Jim Kaat's 4-2 victory Monday over Milwaukee.

The Twins are off to their fastest start in history with a 16-5 record and lead the AL West by 2½ games over Oakland. Kaat, 4-0, is off to a better start than 1966, when he won 25 games.

Prof. Worthington, who had been in sales and insurance since retiring as an active pitcher in 1969, came back to coach the Minnesota pitching staff this season and school started in spring training with classes every two or three days.

"One of the first things I talked about was attitude. Attitude plays a big part in winning and our pitchers have it." Elsewhere, Oakland edged Boston 6-5, the Chicago White Sox downed Baltimore 4-1, Cleveland nipped Texas 4-3 in 10 innings, Detroit shaded Kansas City 3-2 but dropped the second part of a doubleheader 8-4 and California whipped the New York Yankees 6-2.

Kaat not only stopped Milwaukee on six hits but hit a two-run homer in the third. Two Minnesota errors helped the Brewers spoil Kaat's shut-out bid in the sixth and Billy Conigliaro homered in the ninth for their other run.

Arkansas State Jumper in Lead

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Thomas Hill of Arkansas State won the 120-yard high hurdles Sunday in the Martin Luther King Games here. His time was 13.5 seconds.

Hill edged 1968 Olympic champion Willie Davenport and Paul Gibson of the El Paso Track Club, each of whom also was clocked in 13.5 in the event.

Hill, who is training toward the June 29 Olympic trials, will next compete in Bakersfield, Calif., in the Bakersfield Invitational Saturday.

'Felt Like Ragged Edge of Disaster' Says Unser

By BLOYS BRITT

AP Auto Racing Writer INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Bobby Unser drove a fragile, lightweight race car 10 miles at an unbelievable 195.940 miles per hour Sunday and said, "I feel like crying."

"We had our necks stuck out a mile, and for the first time in years I really felt like I was driving at the ragged edge of disaster," added the man who almost surely has clinched the pole position for the 56th running of the Indianapolis 500-mile race May 27.

Plagued by bad weather that washed out all of Saturday's first session of time trials, Speedway officials managed to place 12 drivers in the 33-car field after waiting out rain showers that twice interrupted proceedings Sunday.

Even then, five drivers were still waiting on the qualifying line when the track closed at 6 p.m., among them the No. 1 and No. 2 qualifiers for the 1971 race, Peter Revson and Mark Donohue.

Only these two appear to have a chance at dislodging Unser from the pole. Revson has been clocked at 190-plus in practice.

With a week to find the answer, Revson and Donohue at the very least could knock the other current front row sitters, Gary Bettenhausen and Mario Andretti, further down in the ranks.

Though they aren't eligible for the pole, still to be heard from are such chargers as Al Unser, A. J. Foyt Jr., and new-

Mays Hammers Tiebreaking Home Run for 5-4 Victory

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Sey Hey," Willie's back. "I'm just glad I'm back playing in New York," said Willie Mays Sunday, after he had made a dramatic debut with the Mets, hammering a tie-breaking home run in a 5-4 victory over his former San Francisco teammates.

"There's no place to play like New York," said the 41-year-old Mays, who started his major league career in 1961 with the Giants, when the club was in New York.

While Mays was celebrating his return to New York, Tony Perez of Cincinnati celebrated his 30th birthday, driving in all of the Reds' runs with two homers, a double and a single in 4-3 and 2-0 victories over St. Louis.

Elsewhere in the National League, Atlanta edged Chicago 2-1. Houston outlasted Pittsburgh 7-6. Montreal ripped San Diego 9-3, and Los Angeles at Philadelphia was rained out.

The victory gave the Mets a 17-7 record, best in the National League, and put them three games ahead of runner-up Philadelphia in the East Division.

Mays' homer, which tied him with former Giant Mel Ott for seventh place on the all-time RBI with 1,860, overshadowed Rusty Staub's first grand slam homer with the Mets.

"It was Mays' day," conceded Staub. Perez gave Cincinnati a 2-0 lead in the third inning of the first game with a double that scored Jim McGlothlin and Joe Morgan. Then, after St. Louis had gone ahead in the top of the eighth on Joe Hague's solo session. He was listed in critical condition at an Indianapolis hospital with two broken legs, a broken arm and burns on the face, arms and legs.

Bobby Unser, driving a new Eagle produced by Dan Gurney's All-American Racers, rocketed around the 2½ mile oval to compile his 195.940 average.

Bettenhausen was Sunday's second best qualifier at 188.877 m.p.h. He is driving a McLaren fielded by Roger Penske.

Mario Andretti, the 1969 Indy 500 winner and three-time national driving champ, grabbed a shaky hold on the other front row berth by qualifying at 187.617 in one of the Parnelli Jones team cars.

Defends Tennis Crown In $50,000 Tiebreaker

By DENNE H. FREEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer DALLAS (AP) — Ken Rosewall overcame fellow Australian Rod Laver and fatigue, the deadliest enemy of all for a 38-year-old tennis professional to successfully defend his world Championship of Tennis crown Sunday on a dramatic tiebreaker in the fifth set.

Rosewall, for the second consecutive year, defeated Laver in the finals for the $50,000 check—tennis' richest prize.

The match lasted three hours and 50 minutes with Rosewall prevailing 4-6, 6-0, 6-3, 6-7, and 7-6.

The last set went down to the WCT best-of-12 point tie-breaker with Rosewall winning 7-5, as Laver netted a backhand.

Rosewall was so tired at the end he was stumbling and his head sagged as he gathered strength between points.

"I knew he was exhausted and I had a great chance," said a disappointed 33-year-old Laver, a tennis millionaire who twice won the grand slam. "He's tough. My record is very good against him overall but there is just something about this tournament that makes him hang in there."

Laver got a consolation prize of $20,000 and vowed to take the trophy next year.

"I forgot about the match after I shook Kenny's hand," Laver said. "The third time is lucky. Everybody look out for me next year."

Third place in the tournament went to Arthur Ashe who earned $10,000 by crushing Marty Riessen 6-3, 6-1. Riessen got $6,000.

After Laver captured the first set, his usually powerful serve began to backfire and Rosewall won the set six to love as the crowd of 7,800 fans roared in Moody Coliseum.

Laver hit a backhand into the net on set point to lose the third set.

Best Ryun Could Do Was Next to Last

By RALPH BERNSTEIN

Associated Press Sports Writer PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The best Jim Ryun could do in the mile run in the Martin Luther King Games was next to last, but he finished first and was well out of sight when he headed for the Franklin Field exit. The 25-year-old Ryun, holder of the world record for the mile of 3:51.1, ran 4:14.1 as Bowling Green's Dave Wottle won the rain-swept event over Penn's all-weather tartan track.

Ryun didn't wait around to explain one of his worst performances since coming out of retirement two years ago. He doubled back about 100-yards, ran into the stands and disappeared along with his wife.

In the race he was among the first three in the early going, but folded as the third lap started and wound up beating only one runner in the field of nine.

Wottle won the feature event of the third annual King Games in 3:58.5. He hit the tape less than a stride ahead of Howell Michael of the Quantico Marines, who ran the final 200 yards with the winner almost elbow-to-elbow. Michael also was clocked in 3:58.5. Michigan State's Ken Popejoy was third in 4:00.2 with Penn State's Greg Fredericks fourth (4:01.9).

The so-called "Dream Mile" became a pipe dream long before the gun sent the field off Sunday. Of those originally billed to appear, Marty Liquori was out with an injured heel he has been nursing all winter. Italy's Francisco Arese never left his country, and Duke's Bob Wheeler didn't make the race.

With Liquori injured and even doubtful for the July Olympic Trials, Ryun still is Uncle Sam's brightest hope for a first gold medal in the 1,500-meter Olympic event since 1902.

homer and Lou Brock's two-run shot, Perez drilled his fifth homer of the season into left center field.

In the nightcap, Perez singled in a run in the first inning and homered over the right center field wall in the sixth in support of the three-hit, 12-strikeout pitching of Tom Hall, making his first National League start.

Darrell Evans' fourth homer of the season—his first in three weeks—broke a 1-1 tie in the ninth inning and lifted Atlanta past the Cubs.

Cesar Cedeño smashed a two-run homer in the first inning and Bob Watson hit the next pitch out of the park, triggering Houston's victory over Pittsburgh. The Astros added four runs in the second, the last scoring on a single by Watson.

The Pirates closed to within 7-6 in the seventh when Willie Stargell slammed a two-run homer, his sixth of the season and the 250th of his career. But unbeaten Jim Ray stopped them the rest of the way, gaining his third save against five victories.

Bob Bailey drove in three runs with a single and a double, Mike Jorgensen cracked a two-run homer, Ron Fairly had a solo shot and Tim Foli rapped a two-run double—his first hit in 29 at-bats—leading Montreal's attack against San Diego.

ABA Rookie Of The Year Named

UNIONDALE, N.Y. (AP) — Artis Gilmore of the Kentucky Colonels was voted the Rookie of the Year in the American Basketball Association this season and Julius Erving of Virginia was a strong second, but both their teams were knocked out of the playoffs by New York.

Now, the Nets are contending with another of the league's standout rookies, George McGinnis of Indiana, and not faring well.

Spurred by the powerful McGinnis, the Pacers held a 2-1 lead in the best-of-seven championship series, which continues tonight at the Nassau Coliseum. Nets' Coach Lou Carnesecca calls Indiana "a brutal team," and McGinnis, a muscular 6-foot-8, 235-pounder, is the ring-leader.

He bulled his way through the Nets' defense last Friday night for 30 points and 20 rebounds in Indiana's 114-108 victory before a record ABA playoff crowd of 15,241 at the Coliseum.

Following his strong performance in the third game of the New York series, McGinnis said that for the Nets to make a comeback against the Pacers they would "have to play stronger defense, move the ball better and get more aggressive off the boards."

British Reign Over Emmy Presentations

By JERRY BUCK
Associated Press Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Glenda Jackson and Keith Michell, a regal pair from Britain, and "All in the Family," based on an English comedy, reigned over the 24th annual Emmy presentations.

Miss Jackson won two Emmys Sunday for her portrayal of Queen Elizabeth I, as best actress in a series and for a single performance and the show, "Elizabeth R," was named outstanding dramatic series and outstanding new series. It was shown by the Public Broadcasting System.

Michell, who portrayed the English King Henry VIII from the beginning of his reign until his death, was named outstanding actor in a single performance for the "Catherine Howard" segment of "The Six Wives of Henry VIII" on CBS.

Peter Falk was named best actor in a dramatic series for his slouching, plodding, cigar-chomping portrayal of "Columbo" in the NBC Mystery Movie. CBS's "All in the Family" — adapted from a similar British show — was the biggest over-all winner with six awards at the nationally telecast ceremonies at the Hollywood Palladium.

It was named outstanding comedy series and Emmys went to three members of the Archie Bunker family, Carol O'Connor, Jean Stapleton and Sally Struthers, who tied with Valerie Harper of CBS's "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" for best supporting actress in a comedy.

"Brian's Song," a touching ABC Movie of the Week about two pro football players, Gale Sayers and the late Brian Piccolo, was named the outstanding single program.

Jack Warden, who played the football coach, won as best supporting actor in a drama.

"The Carol Burnett Show" on CBS was named the outstanding musical variety series on its fifth nomination for the award.

"Jack Lemmon in 'S Wonderful,' 'S Marvelous,' 'S Gershwin,'" seen on NBC, was named the outstanding single musical or variety program.

Marijuana Found on Four Farms

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Authorities who went looking for patches of marijuana Saturday report that they found plants growing on four farms in an area near the Craighead County community of Lester.

Officers poured gasoline on the plants and burned them.

Police said the plants destroyed Saturday were believed to be part of a crop valued at $16,000 that was discovered May 5 on a half-acre of farm land. Six Greene and Craighead county residents were arrested after the May 5 discovery.

Craighead County officials also reported Saturday that five more persons had been arrested in connection with a five-month drug investigation that has resulted in the arrest of 31 other persons since Thursday.

Officers said that one of those arrested Saturday was charged with four counts of selling drugs.

Bus in Wrong Lane, 14 Dies in Collision

BEAN STATION, Tenn. (AP) — Investigators say a Greyhound bus that collided with a tractor-trailer truck on U.S. 11W at this upper East Tennessee town, killing 14 persons and injuring 15 more, was on the wrong side of the road.

Capt. Guy Nicholson of the Highway Patrol said, "It hasn't been determined why. 'Evidence at the scene indicates it was as much as six feet across the center line,' he added.

The accident occurred at dawn Saturday.

A National Transportation Safety Board investigating team from Washington left the area early Sunday without comment.

The collision occurred in the heart of this village that was once a stage coach stop.

"It sounded like a case of dynamite going off," said Jesse Coffee, 27, whose home is about 40 yards from the collision point. Coffee said he and his wife were just getting up.

"It jarred the whole house," he said, "Then everything was quiet — all we heard was a baby crying."

Coffee said he and his wife dashed out to the road. They said they found the crying infant lying in a ditch between two dead adults. Other bodies were scattered along the roadside.

The impact split the bus open. The truck, owned by Malone Freight Lines of Birmingham, Ala., and loaded with vinyl flooring and glue, burst into flames, trapping and killing the driver, Bobby Garrison of Gadsden, Ala.

"I remember going to sleep and the next thing I knew I was outside the bus and on the gravel," said Evelyn Delaney, one of the bus passengers. "I just remember talking and touching, but not seeing."

Dan Blocker To Be Buried In Texas

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dan Blocker, whose portrayal of the gentle, hulking Hoss Cartwright on the "Bonanza" television series made him one of America's best known actors, will be buried in the small Texas town where he grew up.

Blocker died Saturday of two blood clots in the lung. He was 43.

A family spokesman said Blocker developed an infection after undergoing gall bladder surgery May 1. He died a few hours after being readmitted to a hospital.

Tentative plans call for the 300-pound, 6-foot-4 inch actor to be buried beside his father this week in O'Donnell, Tex.

Blocker's bulk and West Texas draw disguised his being a millionaire and former school teacher. But his friends said the broad humor and tenderness he displayed before 400 million viewers in 80 countries for 13 years as a son of Ben Cartwright on the Ponderosa Ranch were characteristic of the man.

Each test requires approximately two hours. A student planning to take all four examinations may elect to come to the campus on two different days. All four tests will be administered each day. The English examination will be given at 8 a.m., the mathematics exam at 10 p.m., the science exam at 1 p.m., and the social studies exam at 3 p.m.

Applications must be submitted to the college at least one week prior to the date of the examinations. The registration fee is $10 regardless of the number of tests attempted.

Davis Prosecution Closes

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — The prosecution in the murder-kidnap-conspiracy trial of Angela Davis says it will close its case this week.

What has the state proven in its efforts to link the black militant communist to an Aug. 7, 1970 Marin County courthouse invasion which brought death to four men?

Here is a summary of the prosecution's key evidence—both physical evidence and evidence by testimony—as it was presented to jurors during 25 days of testimony. The physical evidence includes:

—Four guns and receipts for them signed by Angela Davis. The weapons—a pistol, two rifles and a Spanish-made shotgun—were found inside the yellow van in which four were killed at Marin. Testimony showed that Miss Davis bought the shotgun, used to shoot a judge at Marin, less than 48 hours before the shootings. Witnesses said she was gun shopping with a youth resembling Jonathan Jackson, 17, later killed in the violence.

—Paperback books on revolution found in the death van inside Jonathan Jackson's briefcase containing ammunition. The books' front pages were signed "Angela Y Davis."

—Three love letters written by Angela to convict author George Jackson imprisoned at San Quentin. The letters professed undying love for Jackson, whose brother was Jonathan.

In them, the Davis woman declared, "We must learn to rejoice when pigs' blood is spilled." The state claims they prove that, driven by passion, she planned the Marin invasion to take hostages and exchange them for George.

—Checks written by Miss Davis, a former UCLA teacher, several weeks before the shootings. Bank tellers said she was accompanied by Jonathan Jackson, and the state says their constant companionship points to conspiracy.

—A slip of paper found in Jonathan Jackson's wallet bearing the number of a telephone booth in San Francisco International Airport. The state says Jonathan planned to call Miss Davis there as part of the plan which would have ended with a flight out of the airport.

—A plane ticket receipt and check written by Miss Davis for an Aug. 7, 1970 flight from San Francisco about three hours after the invasion had resulted in murder.

White House Renovated

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The reopening today of the Blue Room marks completion of a major redecoration of the White House described as "upgrading to museum quality."

The description comes from curator Clement Conger, who advised Pat Nixon during the three-year project in which 11 rooms, ranging from the President's bedroom to the press quarters, were refurbished.

The Blue Room, whose French empire decor has been exchanged for that of the James Monroe era, will be reopened formally at a reception tonight given by President and Mrs. Nixon for 800 persons who helped in the redecoration project.

The redecoration included:

—Addition of 18 period chandeliers and nine new rugs.

—Repainting of the East Ballroom, Family and State dining rooms, changing color tones slightly, and major redecoration of the Blue, Green and Red reception rooms.

—An "English Pub"-style press room built over the swimming pool installed for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and seldom used by Nixon.

—Creation of a ground-floor reception room, put together by combining offices used by the Secret Service and White House doctor.

—Redecoration of the President's bedroom in red, white and blue "to be patriotic," Mrs. Nixon said.

—Installation of an exercise room for the President's staff.

The White House has not disclosed the total cost of the redecoration. The only figure quoted was $574,000 for the press room.

Wealthy donors contributed sums said to be in excess of $100,000 per room for redecoration of the Red, Green and Blue rooms.

Hanoi's Main Road Rendered Unusable

NEW YORK (AP) — New York Times newsman Anthony Lewis reports from Hanoi that the city's main road and rail bridge to the east and north has been rendered unusable by the U.S. bombing.

Lewis reported in today's edition of the Times that the Red River bridge is still standing but cannot be used by vehicles and will take months to repair according to some foreign experts.

He quoted informed non-Vietnamese sources as saying that recent bombings had struck the main rail line north and south of the city as well as the line between Hanoi and Haiphong.

PRIMARY PROBLEMS
plague Ohio's Gov. John Gilligan, an early backer of now-sidelined Sen. Edmund Muskie. Widespread voting snafus in a neck-and-neck contest between Sens. Charter Jaycee Chapter

Twenty seven young men from the Hope area met Monday evening at the Hempstead County Courthouse with a group of Jaycees from Texarkana. A Hope Jaycee Chapter was chartered at this meeting. New officers for the local chapter are: Dennis Turner, President; Jerry Garrett, first vice-president; Mike Miller, 2nd vice-president; and Freddie Verser, secretary-treasurer. George Holt, Wendell McCorkle, James Starkey, and Larry Brown were elected to the Board of Directors. The chapter plans to hold a charter night banquet Saturday, June 10, at 8 p.m. The new chapter will meet Monday, May 15, in the small courtroom at 7:30 p.m.

Bicyclists Peddle 900 Miles

Two bicyclists peddled their way through Hope Thursday on a 900 mile journey to Duncan, Oklahoma. The two youths, Durand Wagner and Drex Freeman, left Chattanooga, Tenn. May 4 and arrived in Hope late Wednesday.

They spent the night in the home of Mrs. Paul (Bessie) Williams, who is a cousin of Wagner's. Freeman said it was their first night to sleep in a bed since leaving Memphis about four days ago and that it "really felt good".

The boys have been averaging about 80 miles a day but with the help of a good "tail wind"

Tuesday they racked up a whopping 108 miles on one day. Wagner first intended to take a plane to Duncan, his home town, but fare was $64. He discovered he could buy a bicycle for $60 so he made the purchase and figures to save $4 by peddling home.

The pair stopped at Perkins Bicycle Shop for repairs and then continued on their journey. They left Hope around three o'clock Thursday and expect to arrive in Duncan in about four more days.

After a visit with Wagner's parents they plan to drive back to Chattanooga where they are students at Southern Missionary College. Both boys said that everyone along their route was very friendly and were quick to offer help in any way. They both recommended bicycling and suggested everyone should try it at least once.

To Attend Housing Conference

The Annual Spring Conference of the Arkansas Chapter of the National Association of Housing and Renewal Offices will be held at the Ramada Inn in North Little Rock on May 16 and 17, 1972.

Mrs. Rose Marie Shirey, Deputy Director; and Mike Kelly, Executive Director, of the Housing Authority of the City of Hope, plan to attend the meeting. Mr. Kelly will be Moderator for the General Assembly on Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. and will introduce a session on Wednesday morning. Mr. Kelly is Vice-President for Housing of the state chapter.

Octopus Eggs Hatch

BOSTON (AP) — There's a population explosion under way among the octopi at the New England Aquarium.

Fifty octopus eggs hatched recently and aquarium curator Louis E. Garibaldi says approximately 1,000 more are waiting to hatch.

Garibaldi said the aquarium received two female octopi from southern California in December and both apparently were carrying fertilized eggs.

The babies are a half inch in diameter, are eating brine shrimp and showing ability to change color and to discharge protective ink clouds.

They will grow to about two feet in diameter.

17-Year Locust Is Really '13'

There's a new sound in Southwest Arkansas. Not really new, though; it was heard 13 years ago, and will be heard 13 years from now.

What is it? It's the mating call of the periodical cicada or 17-year locust. Except in Arkansas, the 17-year locust is the 13-year locust.

Calvin J. Caldwell, county extension agent, said the "locust" is not really a locust, either. It got the name when early American Colonists experienced the sudden emergence of millions of inch-long bugs that made a deafening noise. They thought the ancient "locust plague" of Egypt and North Africa had descended upon them. (Gordon Barnes, Extension Entomologist, said locusts are grasshoppers; cicadas are not even closely related to grasshoppers.)

As awesome and ear-shattering as the phenomena may be, no control of the cicada is usually necessary. Valuable plants may be protected from egg laying females by spraying with Sevin as recommended on the insecticide label.

However, Mr. Caldwell said, adult cicadas do not feed on foliage. They actually feed a little on the sap of the woody plants. They damage plants by their egg laying activity which starts about 7 to 10 days after emergence. Eggs are laid in rows in slits made in twigs. The tissue dies around the slit. Eggs hatch and the small nymphs drop to the soil and up on stems above the ground. Adults emerge and leave the nymphal skeleton hanging on the plant.

The periodical cicada should not be confused with the annual species. The periodical cicada is smaller, the body is about an inch long; it is black with red eyes and wings, and veins and legs are reddish colored.

If the cicadas remain on Monday, May 15, 1972 schedule, another batch will emerge next year in Eastern Arkansas. They last appeared there in 1960.
